Kelli Sullivan Selected for Leadership Columbia Class of 2013

COLUMBIA, S.C. – The Greater Columbia Chamber of Commerce has chosen Kelli Sullivan, an attorney with McKay, Cauthen, Settana, & Stublely, P.A., as a member of Leadership Columbia, Class of 2013. The selection criteria for Leadership Columbia included civic involvement, leadership potential, diversity of perspective and commitment to the leadership program and the community. For 40 years, Leadership Columbia has helped participants better understand the local community, while building relationships with the region's current and future leaders.

Ms. Sullivan is a certified mediator and has nine years of experience as a Plaintiff's attorney in medical malpractice, employment litigation and personal injury matters. Her extensive knowledge of the insurance industry and experience as a Plaintiff's attorney make her uniquely suited to help clients resolve their most complicated cases. Her background on both sides of complex issues is an asset to The McKay Firm and its clients. She serves as a member of the Medical Malpractice Committee with the South Carolina Defense Trial Attorneys' Association, a member of the Ethics Advisory Committee of the South Carolina Bar Association, and a volunteer mediator for Magistrate's Court cases in Richland and Lexington Counties.
