KELLI SULLIVAN JOINS THE MCKAY FIRM

McKay, Cauthen, Settana & Stublely, P.A. Hire Experienced Attorney and Mediator to Serve McKay Firm Clients

COLUMBIA, S.C. – McKay, Cauthen, Settana, & Stublely, P.A. have named Kelli Sullivan as the newest associate at The McKay Firm. Ms. Sullivan has several years experience as a Plaintiff’s attorney in medical malpractice, employment litigation and personal injury matters. Most recently, she was Regional Assistant General Counsel at Nationwide Insurance handling both litigation issues and insurance coverage disputes. Her background on both sides of complex issues is an asset to The McKay firm and its clients.

In addition, Ms. Sullivan is a certified mediator, and offers mediation services through the McKay firm to Plaintiffs and Defendants throughout South Carolina. Her extensive knowledge of the insurance industry and experience as a Plaintiff’s attorney make her uniquely suited to help others resolve their most multifaceted cases.

Julius W. “Jay” McKay, II, stated, “Bringing Kelli on board means our firm is adding a new layer of services for our clients. We are excited to expand our services to include mediation. Kelli’s litigation experience as well as her knowledge of the inner-workings of the insurance industry makes her a great asset to our team.”

Ms. Sullivan is an active member of the Ethics Advisory Committee of the South Carolina Bar Association, and a volunteer mediator for Magistrate’s Court cases in Richland and Lexington Counties.

Sullivan, a Greenville, SC native, resides in Columbia with her husband Mike and two children, Ellen and Andrew.
