McNees' Lancaster Office Welcomes Joshua D. Cohen

LANCASTER, PA (Oct. 1, 2015) - McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC welcomes a new Member, Joshua D. Cohen, to the firm's Corporate & Tax Practice Group. Cohen will practice in the firm's Lancaster office with a focus on Business Planning, Mergers & Acquisitions, Corporate Governance and Contracts.

Cohen has been practicing for over twenty-five years, primarily in the Lancaster market. His practice encompasses a broad range of business counseling services. His diverse skills enable him to respond to a variety of client needs. He regularly drafts and negotiates contracts in the areas of business acquisitions, technology licensing, new business formation and international commerce. He develops and implements loan workout and collection strategies for lenders and other businesses with non-paying or bankrupt customers, and he helps clients protect their valuable copyright, trademark and trade secret assets.

Cohen, an active member within the Lancaster community, currently serves as a Member of the Board of Directors and is Past Vice-Chair of the EDC Finance Corporation. He has also served as a Member of the Board of Directors for the World Trade Center of Central Pennsylvania and a Member of the Board of Trustees for The New School of Lancaster.

He is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and the United States District Courts for the Middle and Eastern Districts of Pennsylvania.

Cohen earned his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, where he served as Editor of the Law Review, and his undergraduate degree from the University of Pennsylvania Wharton School.

McNees is a full-service law firm based in central Pennsylvania with more than 130 attorneys representing corporations, associations, institutions and individuals. The firm serves clients worldwide from offices in Harrisburg, Lancaster, State College and Scranton, PA; Columbus, OH; and Washington, D.C. McNees is also a member of the ALFA International Global Legal Network.
