McNees' Lancaster Office Welcomes Kiandra Bair

LANCASTER, PA (Nov. 17, 2015) - Kiandra Bair joins McNees as an Associate in the firm's Litigation Practice Group, focusing her practice in the areas of commercial litigation and Orphans' Court litigation. Bair will reside in the firm's growing Lancaster office. The McNees Lancaster office offers a full range of legal services and, in addition to a strong litigation practice, has resident lawyers who focus on Business Planning, Mergers & Acquisitions, Corporate Governance, Municipal and Private Finance, Intellectual Property, Real Estate and Employment law.

Prior to joining McNees, Kiandra served as an Assistant City Solicitor in the Tax Unit for the City of Philadelphia Law Department. In addition, she served as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable Dennis E. Reinaker, who now serves as Lancaster County's President Judge. As a committed volunteer, in 2012, Bair provided Pro Bono services to the Family Court Project, Domestic Violence Unit in Philadelphia, where she worked with victims of domestic violence.

Bair is admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey. She earned her law degree from Drexel University School of Law, where she served as a member of the Black Law Students Association, and her undergraduate degree from the University of Maryland College Park.
