McNees Attorney Katherine Granbois Elected Chair Elect of United Way of Lancaster County's Board of Directors

LANCASTER, PA (April 5, 2016) – McNees attorney, Katherine Pandelidis Granbois, was recently elected to serve as United Way of Lancaster County's Chair Elect of the Board of Directors. Resident in the firm's Lancaster office, Granbois is Of Counsel in the Corporate & Tax, Mergers & Acquisitions, Securities and International Law practice groups.

Kathy, a resident of Lancaster, PA, concentrates her practice in corporate and business law, including mergers and acquisitions, entity formation, corporate finance, joint ventures, sales and distribution and commercial matters, for clients ranging in size from family-owned businesses, to publicly traded companies. Her practice also includes the formation and counseling of nonprofit corporations.

She received her J.D. from the Dickinson School of Law and her undergraduate degree from Bucknell University. She is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar and Lancaster Bar Associations.

Kathy has served as Vice Chair of Finance and Administration for United Way of Lancaster County since 2014. In addition to her involvement with United Way, Granbois is active in the community, serving as a mentor in the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce Women in Business mentoring program and fundraising chair of the Lancaster Youth Amateur Hockey League.
