Wade Carpenter Passes Louisiana Bar Exam

Wade Carpenter, a shareholder with MehaffyWeber, has passed the Louisiana Bar Exam. Wade manages a statewide toxic tort docket for one of the firm's major clients and has defended clients in toxic tort and products liability cases. He has also defended insurance companies in a variety of First Party Claims, handled construction law claims, and has worked on a variety of commercial disputes for both large companies and locally owned businesses. His areas of practice include first party insurance, products liability, commercial litigation, toxic tort and products liability, and personal injury.

Wade is a graduate of Texas A&M University (B.B.A. Finance, 1994), where he participated in the College of Business Honors Program. He graduated magna cum laude from Texas Tech University School of Law in 1997. At Texas Tech, he was a member of the Order of the Coif, Phi Kappa Phi, and the Board of Barristers. He is currently a member of the Jefferson County Bar Association, Defense Research Institute, and Michelle F. Mehaffy Inn of Court. Wade is licensed to practice before the United States District Courts in the Eastern and Southern Districts of Texas.

Wade has been involved in various civic and charitable activities including coaching youth basketball and baseball, Boy Scouts, Leadership Beaumont (Class of 2000) and the Jefferson County Young Lawyers as both an officer and a director. He is on the Board of Directors for Baptist Hospitals of Southeast Texas Foundation, Michelle F. Mehaffy Inn of Court and Beaumont Little Dribblers Basketball. He graduated from the IADC Trial Academy in 2001. Wade has been recognized as a "Texas Rising Star" in Texas Monthly magazine since 2006.
