

SECREST WARDLE SPONSORS OAKLAND COUNTY BAR FOUNDATION'S 17TH ANNUAL SIGNATURE EVENT

The Oakland County Bar Foundation (OCBF) held its 17th annual Signature Event on May 6, 2016, at Oakland Hills Country Club in Bloomfield Hills. The event was sold out. Many Oakland County Circuit Court judges, as well as Michigan Supreme Court justices and Michigan Court of Appeals judges were in attendance. The Oakland County Bar Foundation partners with the Oakland County Bar Association in a collaborative effort to improve access to the legal system for law professionals and the citizens of Oakland County.

The Signature Event is held in recognition of the efforts of the OCBF and serves as the Foundation's only fundraising event. The Signature Event proceeds allow the OCBF to support organizations such as Lakeshore Legal Aid, University of Detroit Mercy School of Law, Beaumont Foundation, HAVEN, RESTORE Foundation, and the Oakland County Bar Association, as well as others. For more information about the OCBF, please visit <http://bit.ly/1T8xRDs>.

Secrest Wardle served as a Bronze sponsor of the Signature Event. Representing Secrest Wardle, from the Firm's Troy location, were Derk Beckerleg, Executive Partner and Managing Partner of the Municipal Law Practice Group, Matthew Consolo, Partner, and Mr. Consolo's wife, Megan Consolo.

Secrest Wardle is a law firm specializing in defense litigation and counsel for insurance, municipal, and commercial clients headquartered in Troy, Michigan, with additional offices in Grand Rapids and Lansing.

Troy • 248-851-9500
Grand Rapids • 616-285-0143
Lansing • 517-886-1224
www.secrestwardle.com

