Corp! Magazine honored this year’s Economic Bright Spot winners at a June 25 breakfast event at VisTaTech Center in Livonia. John G. Mitchell, Executive Partner, and Krystal D. Hermiz, Partner, both of Secret Wardle’s Troy location, attended the event. A diverse group, comprised of 82 companies from a variety of industries, was recognized at the event. Jake Cohen, partner in Detroit Venture Partners, delivered the keynote address, and David Lochner, president of FirstMerit Bank, provided an economic update. Corp! reports that Michigan’s economy looks bright, with job growth occurring across a variety of occupations and industries.

Corp! Magazine, available in print and online, is a business-to-business publication that features success stories, best practices, and strategies that CEOs, business owners, executives, and managers find useful and relevant. The publication prides itself on not making editorial decisions based on how much coverage a story has received in other media, or how it ties into the latest scandal in the business world. Corp! is dedicated to raising the profile of business in our communities and driving it forward.
