Margaret A. Scott, an Executive Partner in Secret Wardle's Troy location, was recently interviewed by Web Editor Douglas Levy of Michigan Lawyers Weekly. The article, “A sidebar with...Margaret A. Scott,” appeared in the publication's July 20, 2015, issue.

The article touched on how most attorneys in Michigan are not able to say they have a practice with matters that are both literally and figuratively “hot.” But Margaret Scott can – she specializes in both arson insurance defense and auto theft prevention. Ms. Scott is a former special prosecutor for the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office. During her time there, she served as chief of the Auto Theft Unit, where she successfully prosecuted almost all of the cases assigned to that unit.

In the article, Margaret Scott offered up some personal tips regarding auto and fire safety: “With regard to my vehicle..., I make sure the vehicle is locked and nothing of value is visible.” “For my home, I have smoke detectors in every bedroom, I have two in my basement and two on my first floor, and that's partly because of my training; I realized how quickly a house can go up.”

Ms. Scott is a member of Secret Wardle's Motor Vehicle Litigation, Municipal, and Property, Fire and Casualty Practice Groups. She is recognized in the Michigan legal community and beyond as a passionate advocate in the fight against auto theft, arson prevention, and insurance fraud. She is the past-Chair of the Michigan Anti-Car Theft Campaign Committee and is the current Chair of the Michigan Arson Prevention Committee's Governmental Resource Committee.
