

TLSS Expands to South Florida, Opening a New Office in Palm Beach Gardens

Traub Lieberman Straus & Shrewsberry LLP announced the expansion of its national law practice with the opening of its Palm Beach Gardens, Florida office. This is the firm's second Florida office, following the 2011 opening of the St. Petersburg office. Joining the firm as partners are Michael D. Logan and Richard A. Jarolem, as well as senior associates, Fernando Ramirez and Frank G. Demeo. The opening of the South Florida office is designed to bolster the TLSS transportation, construction and global insurance practice groups. They also bring talent in the areas of commercial litigation, zoning and land use.

"Michael and Richard demonstrate the kind of careful and thoughtful expansion that has been the focus of our founding partners since we formed the firm in January of 1996," said co-managing and founding partner Richard K Traub. "We are extremely fortunate that these attorneys have joined the firm and we could not be more flattered that they chose to be part of our growing team."

According to co-managing partner and founding partner Meryl Lieberman, "We have a substantial international insurance practice, have tried cases in some 26 states, do work in all 50 states and these attorneys add to the unmatched talent we already have in those areas."
