

JOSHUA P. HENRY AND KEVIN A. ROGERS HAVE BECOME MEMBERS OF THE FIRM

Wells Marble & Hurst, PLLC, is pleased to announce that Joshua P. Henry and Kevin A. Rogers have been elected as the newest members of the firm.

Josh represents clients in the area of commercial litigation with an emphasis on intellectual property and securities law. He regularly counsels clients on intellectual property transactions; negotiates and drafts rights transfers for software, patents and literary rights; and advises producers, content creators and artists on the legal aspects of live entertainment, film and television production.

Kevin's primary practice areas are ERISA and employee benefits litigation; life, health, and disability litigation; commercial litigation; banking and finance; trucking litigation; and bankruptcy and creditors' rights.