When you order...

This information will help you choose from the different options available when purchasing products from A.M. Best.

Service Levels

Many of our products are available as part of three service levels: Regular, Full (BestWeek Print/Online) and Full (BestWeek Online Only).

- Regular Service includes the annual edition or one year of service for the purchased product, plus a one-year subscription to Best's Review, A.M. Best's monthly magazine covering all aspects of the insurance industry. A portion of the purchase price is allocated toward the Best's Review subscription for circulation audit purposes.
- Full Service (BestWeek Print/Online) includes the purchased product, a subscription to Best's Review magazine, plus a one-year subscription to the printed and online versions of BestWeek, a news service covering worldwide insurance industry developments, financial news, federal activity and more. Includes access to A.M. Best's NewsRoom, providing searchable access to BestWire, BestDay, BestWeek and Best's Review, including archived stories. BestWeek subscribers also receive free access to Special Reports and Statistical Studies. The Full Service price reflects the additional cost of the BestWeek subscription.
- Full Service (BestWeek Online Only) includes the same components as above, but only the online version of BestWeek (no printed version), at $100 less than the Full Service (BestWeek Print/Online) price.

User Access Levels

Our CD-ROM and Web-based products can be purchased at a variety of levels of user access, some of which require signed license agreements. A sales representative will guide you in evaluating the level of access appropriate for your organization.

- Single-seat access: The product is installed and authorized for use on one computer. The user receives the ability to link directly to the A.M. Best Web site and access updated Best's Ratings and other online features, depending on the product purchased.
- Multiseat access: The product is installed on a Local Area Network (LAN), or is available online, for a set number of users, with access to applicable online features included.
- Unlimited access: The product is installed on a LAN with no limit on the number of network seats per installation. An HTML version of the product also is made available for use on the company's intranet.
