

September, 2022

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
2000 Market Street, Suite 2300
Philadelphia, PA 19103
September 27, 2022

CONTACT: Wendy A. Ward
267.519.6592
waward@mdwcg.com

Photo Outline: Marshall Dennehey's Philadelphia office celebrates the firm's milestone anniversary. Parties were held in all of the firm's offices on September 22, 2022 and the "60 Charities for 60 Years" honorees were announced. Front row, left to right: Gabrielle Simeone, Senior Payroll Administrator; Christopher Santoro, Shareholder; Butler Buchanan, III, Philadelphia Office Managing Attorney; Craig S. Hudson, Executive Committee Member and Director, Professional Liability Department; G. Mark Thompson, President & CEO; and Howard P. Dvoskin, Executive Committee Member, Chairman, Board of Directors, and Director, Casualty Department.

*For a list of the 60 charities receiving donations, please contact me.

Marshall Dennehey Celebrates 60th Anniversary With Firmwide Charity Initiative

Philadelphia, PA – Marshall Dennehey Warner Coleman & Goggin, an Am Law 200 law firm and one of Pennsylvania's largest law firms, is celebrating 60 years in business. Founded in 1962 by Francis E. Marshall, who was later joined by Gerald Dennehey, John R. Warner, Robert J. Coleman and Robert St. Leger Goggin, the firm has grown to become a civil defense litigation powerhouse recognized for the strength of its trial attorneys and litigation bench. Today, Marshall Dennehey has nearly 500 attorneys in 19 offices spanning seven states, and serves a lengthy roster of some of the country's largest insurance carriers and their insureds, professionals in all disciplines, and small to Fortune 500 businesses.

September, 2022

"When you hear the name 'Marshall Dennehey' you immediately think, 'civil defense litigation' – that's the way it has been for the past six decades, and how it will continue to be," said G. Mark Thompson, Marshall Dennehey's President & CEO. "Our founders built a cornerstone foundation that has enabled us to weather economic instability, technological adaptations and the transition of several administrations. While other firms have come and gone, our ability to innovate, embrace technological change and implement new ideas to the benefit of our clients, has greatly contributed to our longevity and success."

In celebration of the anniversary, the firm developed the initiative, "60 Charities for 60 Years – Let's All Give Back Together." Employees across the firm's 19 offices were invited to submit the name of a favorite local charity, with a short explanation of its mission and importance to the employee. Sixty charities were selected and each received a $1,000 donation from the firm in that employee's honor.

"We wanted to not only celebrate our employees, but at the same time, give back to the communities where we conduct business," said Mr. Thompson. "The response was overwhelming and it was difficult to select only 60. In the end, it feel great to support these worthwhile organizations and we also learned a lot of wonderful things about the people who work here."

According to Mr. Thompson, who became CEO in 2018 following the 13-year tenure of Thomas A. Brophy, much of the firm's growth can be attributed to Robert J. Coleman, whose vision of a regional defense litigation firm was key to the firm's expansion beginning in the 70s. "Bob's strategic vision for the firm, to open regional offices close to county courthouses where our attorneys could develop relationships with the judiciary and local legal community and most efficiently manage their cases, helped us navigate an evolving insurance industry and defense litigation environment. We continue that strategy today with the recent opening of an office in New Haven, Connecticut."

Among other attributes, Thompson said the firm's unique shareholder structure and compensation scheme have greatly contributed to the firm's positive workplace culture and success. "Since the beginning, we have not awarded origination fees. Rather, compensation is based on litigation performance and other benchmarks, an approach that promotes collegiality and teamwork."

Firmwide office celebrations were held on September 22, 2022 where employees gathered to celebrate the firm's past, present and future.

About Marshall Dennehey

Marshall Dennehey Warner Coleman & Goggin, founded in 1962 and headquartered in Philadelphia, PA, is a leading civil defense litigation law firm that represents and advises insurers, self-insured businesses and professionals in a wide range of professional liability, casualty, health care, employment and workers' compensation matters. With nearly 500 attorneys in 19 offices throughout PA, NJ, DE, OH, NY, CT & FL, Marshall Dennehey is uniquely positioned to assist clients in both avoiding litigation, as well as providing them with a vigorous defense in the event of claims and suits made against them. For more information, please visit www.marshalldennehey.com.