Mark S. Brennan Sr. Honored as a Go To Lawyer for Medical Malpractice in Virginia

Norfolk, VA (December 6, 2021) – Vandeventer Black LLP is pleased to announce that partner Mark S. Brennan Sr. has been included in Virginia Lawyers Weekly (VLW) “Virginia’s Go To Lawyers” group of honorees in Medical Malpractice law. According to VLW, this program recognizes top lawyers across the Commonwealth who are leaders in their field with a long record of success.

“I am honored for this recognition provided by my peers,” said Brennan. “I feel privileged to be able to help health care providers with their legal needs, which I have been doing for decades.”

Brennan has extensive trial and litigation experience in state and federal courts. He defends physicians, nurses, hospitals, nursing home/long-term care facilities, physical therapists, dentists, and all other varieties of health care providers against medical malpractice wrongful death, and personal injury claims. Brennan also serves as regional counsel for long-term nursing care companies in Virginia and defends health care providers in proceedings before the state professional licensing and disciplinary boards.
