The McKay Firm Welcomes David M. Bornemann

Firm's Workers' Compensation Practice Continues to Expand

COLUMBIA, SC – McKay, Cauthen, Settana, & Stublely, P.A. (The McKay Firm), is pleased to announce that David M. Bornemann has joined the firm's workers' compensation team.

David, a South Carolina native, has practiced in the area of workers' compensation defense, subrogation and workers' compensation appeals since 2006.

In addition to being a member of the South Carolina and Richland County Bar Associations, David is also a graduate of Leadership Columbia Class of 2012, member of the Contemporaries of the Columbia Museum of Art and a graduate of the South Carolina Bar Association's 2012 Leadership Academy. Prior to practicing law, David was a law clerk for the Honorable Paul M. Burch.

David graduated from the University of South Carolina Honors College and the University of South Carolina School of Law.

M. Stephen Stublely, McKay Firm Partner and workers' compensation attorney, stated, "We are excited about adding David to our workers' compensation team. As we continue to expand, David's experience and knowledge of the workers' compensation system will be an asset to our clients."
